Everyone has a reason they are special. Some people are tall. Some people are short. Some people have big eyes. Some have great hair. But everyone’s smile is special. And some are especially unforgettable. It may be the shape of the lips. Or it may be the gap between the teeth. Or it may be the happiness it shows.

Can you recognize who is smiling in the pictures below?

1. She was Leonardo DaVinci’s favorite subject.
2. This athlete is a kick!
3. His best friend is a dog named Pluto.
4. He played a singing basketball player.
5. This lady is a symbol of American freedom.
6. This “Baby” became a popstar by age 16.
7. Always happy!
8. This devilish smile wore Prada.
9. He smiles even though “it aint easy being green!”

It takes 17 muscles to smile. It takes 43 to frown.
If you see a friend without a smile, give him one of yours.
Smiling is the one language that everyone understands.